04/01/17	2:00 AM	The Silent Fall	Two Hours	2006	Color	Miles Anderson, Leon Clingman, Aaliyah Madyun, Matthew Rutherford, Justin Smith	The Silent Fall is a 2006 South African drama film set in and around Cape Town, focusing on the AIDS problem of Africa.	The story is set in motion after the brutal murder of a South African doctor who is on the brink of discovering a break through generic AIDS drug. If found to be successful, the cost-effective drug could cripple pharmaceutical giant, the Kingdom Corporation. The story explodes into a web of intrigue and danger as Kingdom's role in the doctor's death is brought into question. This, and a continent in the grips of a heartless pandemic, provide the dramatic backdrop against which heroine Dr. Thandie Khumalo's personal journey unfolds. She struggles to come to terms with her beloved colleague's murder and the loss of her friends and family to the pandemic which she has dedicated her life to fighting. Vying for her heart and mind as she searches for the truth are Lucas De Villiers, the charming yet ruthless CEO of Kingdom, and handsome fellow doctor Josh Kingsley.
04/01/17	9PM	Fireproof	Two Hours	2008	Color	Kirk Cameron, Erin Bethea and Ken Bevel	In an attempt to save his marriage, A firefighter uses a 40-day experiment known as "The Love Dare".	At work, inside burning buildings, Capt. Caleb Holt lives by the old firefighter's adage: Never leave your partner behind. At home, in the cooling embers of his marriage, he lives by his own rules. Growing up, Catherine Holt always dreamed of marrying a loving, brave firefighter...just like her daddy. Now, after seven years of marriage, Catherine wonders when she stopped being "good enough" for her husband. Regular arguments over jobs, finances, housework, and outside interests have readied them both to move on to something with more sparks. As the couple prepares to enter divorce proceedings, Caleb's father challenges his son to commit to a 40-day experiment: "The Love Dare." Wondering if it's even worth the effort, Caleb agrees-for his father's sake more than for his marriage. When Caleb discovers the book's daily challenges are tied into his parents' newfound faith, his already limited interest is further dampened. While trying to stay true to his promise, Caleb becomes frustrated time and again. He finally asks his father, "How am I supposed to show love to somebody who constantly rejects me?" When his father explains that this is the love Christ shows to us, Caleb makes a life-changing commitment to love God. And with God's help he begins to understand what it means to truly love his wife. But is it too late to fireproof his marriage? His job is to rescue others. Now Caleb Holt is ready to face his toughest job ever...rescuing his wife's heart.

04/05/17	9pm	So, who is this Jesus	one hour	1999	Color	presented by: Russell Boulter	So -- who is this Jesus? Russell Boulter provides answers to the question in a down-to-earth, no nonsense style. This program has been designed specifically to help people with no previous knowledge of Jesus to have a better understanding of who He is.	Two thousand years ago a man was born who changed the course of history. He was a carpenter. As an adult he never traveled more than 60 miles. He was betrayed by one of his twelve followers and executed for crimes he did not commit. Today, even in an age of skepticism and materialism, there are millions of people from all walks of life who passionately believe in him--and who claim he has radically changed their lives. His name is familiar to us all -- even if only as a swear word. But who is he -- who is this Jesus? Russell Boulter provides answers to the question in a down-to-earth, no nonsense style. This program has been designed specifically to help people with no previous knowledge of Jesus to have a better understanding of who He is. For those who already know Jesus, it will give them an even greater understanding of Jesus' life and the joy of knowing him better.

04/08/17	9PM	Repeat Performance	Two Hours	1999	Color	Joseph Manning & Lisa Crittenden	Teenage Sean accidentally hits and kills a boy with his car, and he is pursued not for justice, but with the love that hopes that he might come to know the forgiveness of Jesus Christ. Including some scenes of drunkenness and depravity, this movie demonstrates a Christian worldview of God saving a man in despair	Driving back from a party, where a friend is driving Sean's car, they hit and kill a little boy. Now, Sean is on the run and his grandparents, his guardian, his music teacher, and even the parents of the slain boy are trying to reach him with the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ. Sean has real problems; there is real jeopardy; and, there is real dialogue. The movie addresses all the lusts, desires and sins which people face in everyday life. In the midst of his downward spiral, Sean catches a glimpse of Graham preaching, as he tries to switch from the evening news which addresses the fatal accident in which he was involved. He has to play at a rock concert which turns out to have been sponsored by a church. In between the concert segments, an MTV-like excerpt of Graham's teaching is shown. However, it is not Graham who leads Sean to Jesus Christ, it is God working through many people, and therefore the storyline is extremely satisfying and involving.

Traces his career in the negro leagues and the major leagues.	The film begins with Robinson as a boy. He is given a worn-out baseball glove by a stranger impressed by his fielding skills. As a young man, he becomes a multi-sport star at the University of California, Los Angeles, but as he nears graduation, he worries about his future. His older brother Mack was also an outstanding college athlete and graduate, but the only job he could get was that of a lowly street cleaner. When America enters World War II, Robinson is drafted, serving as an athletic director. Afterward, he plays baseball with a professional African-American team. However, the constant travel keeps him away from his college sweetheart, Rae. Then one day, Brooklyn Dodgers scout Clyde Sukeforth invites him to meet Branch Rickey, president of the Major League Baseball team. At first, Robinson considers the offer to be a practical joke, as African Americans are not allowed to play in the segregated major leagues. When he is convinced that the opportunity is genuine, he and Rickey size each other up. After thinking over Rickey's warning about the hatred and abuse he would have to endure without being able to strike back, Robinson signs with the Dodgers' International League farm team, the Montreal Royals. Though he wants to delay marrying Rae to shield her, she insists on an immediate wedding so she can support her man in the trying times ahead.

04/19/17	2:00 AM	Til the Clouds Roll By	3 Hours	1946	Color	Robert Walker, Van Heflin, Lucille Bremer	Light bio-pic of American Broadway pioneer Jerome Kern, featuring renditions of the famous songs from his musical plays by contemporary stage artists, including a condensed production of his most famous: 'Showboat'.	On the success of his latest and most elaborate Broadway musical "Show Boat", composer Jerome Kern reminisces to his chauffeur about his life that led to this point. He talks about: his long time friendship with arranger James Hessler who in large part helped him hone his craft, and who himself wanted to get out of arranging to focus on composing serious music; how he overcame the mentality of the time of Broadway producers of featuring the English music halls revues; how he met an English country lass named Eva Leale, who would become Mrs. Kern; his near death experience in almost boarding the ill-fated Lusitania sailing, the liner which was ultimately torpedoed and sank on that sailing; his longtime friendship with Hessler's daughter, Sally Hessler, whose want, as an adult, to be a Broadway performer led to a certain estrangement; and the specific events that led to the creation of "Show Boat" with lyricist Oscar Hammerstein II. With the advent of talking pictures, Kern's music, both existing songs as well as new songs written expressly for, would hit a broader audience through Hollywood movies.
